

TRANSFER in SEVIS to CSUN For Tseng College Students ONLY (IEP to CSUN; SAC to CSUN; Cohort or Graduate-Level to CSUN)

After the last day of a session or semester, you have a 60-day grace period to leave the United States or to transfer to another school. Submitting this form confirms that you want and expect to be transferred to California State University, Northridge (CSUN) once admitted to CSUN for a degree program. Students cannot transfer to CSUN early, transfers occur at the end of your last session or semester.

However, SEVIS transfers can be processed in advance. A transfer can be requested weeks or months before the end of the term as long the student is admitted to CSUN. However, the actual RELEASE DATE is scheduled for your last day of enrollment. CSUN cannot issue the new I-20 until the release date, but they can see in SEVIS the names of students, and their release dates, who are transferring into CSUN.

Students can transfer in SEVIS in the 60 days following the last day of their last session or semester in Tseng College.

Students who travel out of the U.S. while between Tseng and CSUN must use CSUN's I-20 to enter the US. You can work with International Admissions, in Bayramian Hall 160 to either obtain your I-20 before leaving the US or receive it while out of the country, so that you can use it to re-enter the United States.

I have read and understand the above. _____
